LETTER OF AGREEMENT

between

The Right Reverend J. Jon Bruno

and

The Reverend Deacon _____

Whom the Bishop has assigned as

Deacon at _____ Church

_____, California

effective _____

PREFACE: The ministry of the deacon has its origins in the life and ministry of Christ and in the history of the early Church. It is given shape, meaning and purpose in the words of the Baptismal Covenant. This ministry is made concrete and specific by the words of the ordination service for deacons:

“God now calls you to a special ministry of servanthood directly under your bishop. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are to serve all people, particularly the poor, the weak, the sick, and the lonely. As a deacon in the Church, you are to study the Holy Scriptures, to seek nourishment from them, and to model your life upon them. You are to make Christ and his redemptive love known by your word and example, to those among whom you live and work and worship. You are to assist the bishop and priests in public worship and in the ministration of God’s Word and Sacraments, and you are to carry out other duties assigned to you from time to time.”(BCP p. 543)

Diaconal ministry is understood as one which takes on characteristics of both servanthood and leadership. While the deacon is bound by vow directly to the bishop, the Deacon also carries out ministries in close collaboration with the Rector/Vicar and congregation, as well as outside the formal boundaries of the Church.

1. Authority
 - 1.1 Deacons serve directly under the authority of the Bishop and are accountable to the Bishop. Their office in congregations reflects and extends their role as agents of the Church, commissioned by the Bishop to make the word of God, the mystery of Christ, known in many different ways and venues.
 - 1.2 Deacons serve in accordance with the diocesan customs for the Diaconate. (See Exhibit A)
 - 1.3 Rectors/Vicars in Charge preside in their congregations and exercise authority in matters concerning the congregation.
2. Tenure
 - 2.1 The Bishop will consult with the Deacon and the Rector/Vicar or other leader exercising oversight before making the assignment.
 - 2.2 The assignment continues until the Bishop withdraws it, at his discretion.
3. Ministries in the Congregation
 - 3.1 The Deacon shall work with Rector/Vicar and the baptized members in the ongoing renewal of the congregation.

4. Liturgy

The deacon shall perform the full and proper liturgical functions of a deacon at Sunday, Holy Day Liturgies, and at other liturgies such as baptisms, weddings, and funerals by mutual agreement with the Rector/Vicar. The functions may include Proclaiming the Gospel, Bidding the Creed, the Prayers of the People, and the Confession, Assisting at and preparing the Table at the Eucharist, Sending Forth the Eucharistic Visitors, Dismissing the People, Preaching on a regular basis and other agreed upon functions consistent with his/her call to the order of the deacon.
5. Participation in Diocesan and Congregational Life
 - 5.1 From time to time the Deacon may assist at liturgies elsewhere.
 - 5.2 The Deacon will participate, to the fullest extent possible, in diocesan convention, clericus, deanery and other required meetings, in gatherings for deacons, and in continuing education.

6. Work and Leave

- 6.1 The Deacon normally serves the congregation without stipend or fee.
- 6.2 The congregation shall reimburse travel expenses incurred in the Deacon's activities on behalf of the congregation, including automobile at the current IRS rate for business use (except for travel from home to church) and out-of-pocket costs for parking fees and tolls.
- 6.3 Payment for the Deacon's attendance at diocesan convention and other required meetings may be negotiated.
- 6.4 The congregation shall furnish a discretionary fund for the Deacon, funded out of offerings for the poor, other special offerings, and direct donations, to be used for charitable purposes outside the congregation. The fund shall be set up as an account in the congregation's name, using the congregation's tax ID number. The Fund should follow diocesan guidelines, including being subject to annual audit. The Deacon shall make a regular report to the Rector/Vicar on the use of the fund.

- 6.6 The congregation shall furnish vestments for the Deacon's role in congregational liturgies. The Deacon shall furnish vestments for liturgical celebrations elsewhere, at the Deacon's expense.
- 6.7 The Deacon shall maintain membership in professional organizations and shall subscribe to professional periodicals and buy religious books, all pertaining to work as deacon, at the Deacon's expense unless the church agrees to provide a professional expense allowance.
- 6.8 The Deacon is eligible for the following periods of leave, if possible taken concurrently with leave from secular work:
 - 6.8.1 Four weeks vacation each year.
 - 6.8.2 Two weeks each year for continuing formation.
 - 6.8.3 Sick leave, as required.

8. Termination

- 8.1 This agreement automatically terminates, including withdrawal of the Deacon’s assignment to the congregation, if and when the Rector/Vicar leaves this congregation. The Bishop may continue the Deacon’s assignment for the interim period. A new letter of Agreement shall be in place during the interim. After a new Rector/Vicar has taken office, the Bishop may continue the Deacon’s assignment to the congregation, after consultation with the Rector/Vicar and the Deacon. The Rector/Vicar and the Deacon shall then, as soon as possible, establish and sign a new Letter of Agreement, subject to the signed approval of the Bishop. A three-month leave of absence for the Deacon, agreed upon by the Bishop, Rector/Vicar and the Deacon, may be appropriate at any time during the first six months of the new Rector/Vicar’s tenure.
- 8.2 The Deacon or the Rector/Vicar may request termination of this agreement, including withdrawal of the Deacon from the congregation, at any time, by giving written notice to the Bishop. The Bishop may act on the request, at his discretion.
- 8.3 The Bishop may terminate this agreement, withdrawing the Deacon from the congregation, at any time and for any reason, by giving notice to the Deacon and the Rector/Vicar.
- 8.4 On such termination, if desirable, an interval of thirty days shall be granted before the Deacon is withdrawn.
