

A—Epiphany 6 / Proper 1 / Ordinary Time 6

Presider or deacon

Before we offer gifts at the altar, let us offer prayers for all our sisters and brothers in the church and the world who need justice, mercy, and reconciliation.

Deacon of other leader

For the church of Jesus Christ throughout the world.

Lord, have mercy.

For N our bishop and N our presbyter, for our deacons and all who minister in Christ, and for all the people of God.

Lord, have mercy.

For those chosen to govern peoples and nations, and for the welfare of their people.

Lord, have mercy.

For all who suffer from any form of oppression, and for the hungry and homeless.

Lord, have mercy.

For all who are sick and in need of prayer, and for the dying and the dead.

Lord, have mercy.

For ourselves, and for our families and all those we love.

Lord, have mercy.

Remembering the Blessed Virgin Mary, N, and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ. To you, O Lord.

Presider

Loving God, who commands us to do what is right and good, hear the prayers we offer you this day that all peoples may approach your holy table in peace and unity; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A—Epiphany 7 / Proper 2 / Ordinary Time 7

Presider or deacon

We are God's temple, called to be a holy people. Let us offer prayers for all in need of God's mercy.

Deacon or other leader

For the church of Jesus Christ throughout the world.

Lord, have mercy.

For N our bishop and N our presbyter, for our deacons and all who minister in Christ, and for all the people of God.

Lord, have mercy.

For those chosen to govern peoples and nations, and for the welfare of their people.

Lord, have mercy.

For the poor and the alien, the deaf and the blind, and for all who suffer from oppression.

Lord, have mercy.

For our enemies and all who persecute us.

Lord, have mercy.

For all who are sick and in need of prayer, and for the dying and the dead.

Lord, have mercy.

Remembering the Blessed Virgin Mary, N, and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ. To you, O Lord.

Presider

God most holy, who sent your Spirit to dwell among us, hear the prayers we offer this day and grant us the gift of love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A—Epiphany 8 / Proper 3 / Ordinary Time 8

Presider or deacon

For the needs of all creatures, let us pray to God who feeds the birds of the air.

For this holy gathering and for the people of God in every place.

Lord, have mercy.

For all nations, peoples, tribes, clans, and families.

Lord, have mercy.

For mercy, justice, and peace throughout the world.

Lord, have mercy.

For all those in danger and need, the sick and the suffering, prisoners, captives, and their families, the hungry, homeless, and oppressed.

Lord, have mercy.

For the dying and the dead.

Lord, have mercy.

For ourselves, and for our families and all those we love.

Lord, have mercy.

Remembering the Blessed Virgin Mary, N, and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ. To you, O Lord.

Presider

Heavenly Father, who clothes the grass of the field, hear our prayers and clothe us with every want; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A—Proper 4 / Ordinary Time 9 (May 29-June 4)

Presider or deacon

Through our faith in Jesus Christ, let us offer prayers to God our firm foundation.

Deacon or other leader

For this holy gathering and for the people of God in every place.

Lord, have mercy.

For all nations, peoples, tribes, clans, and families.

Lord, have mercy.

For all that is good and bountiful for the world, and for mercy, justice, and peace.

Lord, have mercy.

For children and for those who teach them God's commands.

Lord, have mercy.

For all those in danger and need: the sick and the suffering, the hungry and the oppressed, travelers and prisoners, the dying and the dead.

Lord, have mercy.

For ourselves, our families, and those we love.

Lord, have mercy.

Remembering the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ. To you, O Lord.

Presider

Rock of ages, in whom we find our safety, hear the prayers we offer today and continually give us your bounty; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A—Proper 5 / Ordinary Time 10 (June 5-11)

Presider or deacon

God calls us sinners to follow Jesus. On the way let us join all the disciples everywhere and offer prayers in the love and knowledge of God.

Deacon or other leader

For a day that is holy, good, and peaceful.

Lord, have mercy.

For an angel of peace to guide us in all our paths.

Lord, have mercy.

For this holy gathering and for the people of God in every place.

Lord, have mercy.

For all nations, peoples, tribes, clans, and families.

Lord, have mercy.

For all that is good and bountiful for the world.

Lord, have mercy.

For all those in danger and need, the suffering and the oppressed, travelers and prisoners.

Lord, have mercy.

For the dying and the dead.

Lord, have mercy.

For ourselves, our families, and those we love.

Lord, have mercy.

Remembering the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ. To you, O Lord.

Presider

God who gives life to the dead, receive our prayers and secret yearnings and make us willing to follow where you lead the way; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A—Proper 6 / Ordinary Time 11 (June 12-18)

Presider or deacon

As a priestly people, chosen by God as a holy nation, we offer prayers for the whole world and for every person in every need.

Deacon or other leader

For this holy gathering and for the people of God in every place.

Lord, have mercy.

For all nations, peoples, tribes, clans, and families.

Lord, have mercy.

For all that is good and bountiful for the world, and for mercy, justice, and peace.

Lord, have mercy.

For all those in danger and need: the sick and the suffering, the hungry and the oppressed, travelers and prisoners, the dying and the dead.

Lord, have mercy.

For ourselves, our families, and those we love.

Lord, have mercy.

Lifting our voices with all creation, with the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ. To you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the sick and the suffering, travelers and prisoners, all who bear heavy burdens, and the dying and dead.

Lord, have mercy.

For our city and those who live in it, and for our families, companions, and all those we love.

Lord, have mercy.

Lifting our voices with all creation, with the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ. To you, O Lord.

Presider

God and Father of all, who calls on us to serve you and one another, hear the prayers we offer this day and lead us to true humility; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A—Proper 27 / Ordinary Time 32 (Nov 6-12)

Presider or deacon

Fixing our thoughts and desires on holy Wisdom, let us offer prayers to God for all the world.

Deacon or other leader

For N our bishop and N our presbyter, for this holy gathering, and for the people of God in every place.

Lord, have mercy.

For mercy, justice, and peace among all peoples.

Lord, have mercy.

For good weather, abundant fruits of the earth, and peaceful times.

Lord, have mercy.

For our city and those who live in it and for our families, companions, and all those we love.

Lord, have mercy.

For all those in danger and need: the sick and the suffering, prisoners, captives, and their families, the hungry, homeless, and oppressed.

Lord, have mercy.

For those who rest in Christ and for all the dead.

Lord, have mercy.

For our deliverance from all affliction, strife, and need.

Lord, have mercy.

Lifting our voices with all creation, with the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ. To you, O Lord.

Presider

God whose Son died and rose again, hear the prayers we offer this day and bring all your people to the wedding banquet of your Son in the kingdom of heaven; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A—Proper 28 / Ordinary Time 33 (Nov 13-19)

Presider or deacon

As we wait in pregnant expectation for the day of the Lord, let us offer prayers to God for all in every danger and need.

Deacon or other leader

For this holy gathering, and for the people of God in every place.

Lord, have mercy.

For all peoples and their leaders, and for justice and righteousness in the world.

Lord, have mercy.

For good weather, abundant fruits of the earth, and for peaceful times.

Lord, have mercy.

For the sick and the suffering, travelers and refugees, prisoners and their families, and the dying and dead.

Lord, have mercy.

For our city and those who live in it, and for our families, companions, and all those we love.

Lord, have mercy.

Lifting our voices with all creation, with the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ. To you, O Lord.

Presider

Almighty God, who gave us salvation through Jesus Christ and made us children of light, hear the prayers we offer this day and bring us to the time and season of your glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A—Proper 29 / Christ the King (Nov 20-26)

Presider or deacon

Let us pray to the Lord our God, who seeks the lost sheep, binds up the injured, and strengthens the weak.

Deacon or other leader

For N our bishop and N our presbyter, for this holy gathering, and for the people of God in every place.

Lord, have mercy.

For the leaders of the nations and all in authority, and for mercy, justice, and peace among all peoples.

Lord, have mercy.

For good weather, abundant fruits of the earth, and peaceful times.

Lord, have mercy.

For our city and those who live in it, and for our families, companions, and all those we love.

Lord, have mercy.

For all those in danger and need: the hungry and the thirsty, strangers and the naked, the sick and those in prison.

Lord, have mercy.

For those who rest in Christ and for all the dead.

Lord, have mercy.

For our deliverance from all affliction, strife, and need.

Lord, have mercy.

Lifting our voices with all creation, with the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ. To you, O Lord.

Presider

God our shepherd, who raised your Son from the dead and made him king of all creation, hear the prayers we offer this day and enable us to see your glory in the face of the poor; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A—Trinity Sunday

Presider or deacon

Bound together in Christ in the communion of the Holy Spirit, let us pray with one heart and mind to God our Father.

Deacon or other leader

For peace from on high and for our salvation.

Lord, have mercy.

For the peace of the whole world, for the welfare of the holy churches of God, and for the unity of all.

Lord, have mercy.

For this holy gathering and for those who enter with faith, reverence, and fear of God.

Lord, have mercy.

For N our bishop and the presbyters, the deacons and all who minister in Christ, and for all the holy people of God.

Lord, have mercy.

For the world and its leaders, our nation and its people.

Lord, have mercy.

For all those in need, the suffering and the oppressed, travelers and prisoners, the dying and the dead.

Lord, have mercy.

For ourselves, our families, and those we love.

Lord, have mercy.

Remembering our most glorious and Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ. To you, O Lord.

Presider

Blessed are you, O Lord our God, who created all things by your eternal Word. Hear the prayers we offer this day and breathe upon us with your Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
